

Revised Short Course Content

Course 1

- Understanding injury as a public health problem
- Preventing injury using the public health approach
- Defining the injury problem
- Identifying risk and protective factors
- Communicating the injury problem
- Managing an injury prevention coalition
- Planning to seek funding

Course 2

- Using and summarizing data
- Finding and selecting evidence-based interventions (EBIs)
- Adapting and tailoring EBIs to tribal cultures
- Implementing EBIs
  - Planning
  - Evaluation
- Communicating the process/result of EBIs
- Developing a funding proposal

Course 3

- Searching/reviewing the published literature
- Managing primary data collection
  - Methods (sampling)
  - Confidentiality (IRB)
  - Instrument development
- Managing and analyzing secondary data collection
  - Descriptive (textual)
  - Quantitative (numeric)
- Including population-based strategies in EBI
- Evaluating an EBI